Wisconsin Club Lamb Association WCLA News Update

Spring 2011

It's Show Time!

It's time to dust off your show supplies because it's time to start the 2011 WCLA show season! A complete listing of the WCLA sanctioned shows is available at www.wisconsinclublambassociation.com. Show dates and contact information is on page 4 of this newsletter.

The board and membership has made several changes for the upcoming show season.

1. The commercial ewe class has been discontinued.
2. The Novice division has been discontinued.
3. The Futurity Show has been reinstated. Lambs purchased at the WCLA Sale can qualify for the Futurity Show which will be held on June 11 at the WLBA Spring Preview Show in Jefferson, Wisc. Cash awards to the top two sheep in the Prospect and Market Division of the Futurity Show.
4. The number of shows to qualify for awards (breed and showmanship) has changed from six to three. The maximum number of shows to count towards an award remains at eight shows.

WCLA members showed off their lambs at the 2010 UW-River Falls Block and Bridle Prospect Show. Good luck to the WCLA Junior members in the upcoming show season.

Structurally sound, big-boned Hampshires for a great project.

Quad C's Club Lambs

The Mark Novak Family
N2621 Smock Valley Road, Browntown, WI
608-966-1055
remarksheep@yahoo.com

Our Hampshire and Crossbred ewes are Wheaton, Miller (Texas) and Meudt-based. We added our Hampshire rams, "Ranger" a 7/8 brother to "Gauge" and "E-Harmony" (co-owned with Kody Miller, South Dakota) to produce a powerful set of lambs. Our Dorset ewes are from GT Dorset breeding. We added "Impulse" a "Kracker" son from Williams Club Lambs – for the must see 2011 crop.

Rupnow Show Lambs

Jim & Sue Rupnow
T6617 N. Troy St., Wausau, WI 54403
